Qualifications:
TLI40121 – Certificate IV in Specialist Driving Operations
Qualification Purpose
The purpose of this qualification is to provide advanced skills in specialist driving occupations such as tanker operation and heavy vehicle recovery. The core units apply across all specialisations and a range of industry contexts, which provides mobility for graduates across the range of occupations. Skill Sets in the TLI Training Package provide the additional specialist skills if graduates move from the specialisation they initially completed.
